

Nau mai, haere mai,
welcome to unspoilt
Aotearoa New Zealand.

Rangitikei, the land of authentic adventures, scenic discoveries and a wide array of events, where memorable experiences are beckoning.

There's something for you all year round, with on average 2,000+ sunlight hours, approximately 30,078 metres of rugged west coastline and more square metres of wide-open spaces than we can count.

Our district is home to unspoilt land steeped in history with panoramic views leading out to Mount Ruapehu and Taranaki, the Kaimanawa and Ruahine Ranges and of course our mighty awa, the Rangitikei river.

Search our brochure, head to our social media, watch videos on our website and find out how our home can become your next destination. With something for everyone, even the most discerning soul will find their own kind of adventure within the boundaries of our Rangitikei.

Experience

Rangitikei offers so many authentic experiences for those looking for adventure. From single or multi-day rafting and kayaking adventures on our awa, to trout fishing and hunting free-range sika deer in the high country. There is cycle rides through the breath-taking scenic landscape and quiet back country roads, walks around waterways and horse trekking. And, with the choice of five golf courses throughout the district, there really is something for everyone. www.visitrangitikei.nz/experience

Taste

We are lucky to be spoilt for choice when it comes to tantalising the taste buds and experiencing different foods locally grown. The Rangitikei has some leading food producers, of note, Knoff and Tweeddale's Honey and Kiwi Quinoa in Aotearoa New Zealand.

Did you know your beer probably starts here?

Every time you drink a New Zealand brewed beer, there's a high chance the malt came from Marton.

Taste your way through our district and experience a slice of the good old Kiwi hospitality.
